was crude at the best. We know it is the fashion to praise everything that is old, but it isn't fair.

OUR STATIONERY

is entitled to as much respect as that of Washington's time. It is just as good and infinitely more graceful and pretty. Cheaper, too, by a great deal. Want some?

Three acts of fun relieved by occasional touches of pathos are promised to patrons of the Barre Opera House tomorrow evening, when Louis Mann appears under the management of Charles B. Dillingham in "The Second Fiddle." Mr. Mann's tour began early in the season. Mr. Mann has recently concluded a long engagement at the Criterion Theatre, New York, and brings with him to this city the same big company which supported him during that run. It includes Dorothy Revell, Edw.
See, Georgia Welles, Percy Lyndal, William Hassan, Charles Dade, Marie Bingham, Gertrude Doremus, Elsie Ferguson, Irene Frizzell, Bertie Bertrand, Ethel Howe and Mary Grant.

The Wilkes-Barre News says of the Hadley moving pictures which will show at the opera house under the auspices of the Barre Boys' club, Monday evening: "Hadley's exhibition of moving pictures at the Armory Wednesday evening surpassed the rosiest anticipations of the management. The drill-room floor was completely filled by a refined, cultured and appreciative audience. Each number was received with well-deserved applause. The scenes portrayed were numerous, varied and satisfactorily acceptable. The fluttering or flickering was not nearly so noticeable as in previous exhibitions. It would,
to the most exacting critic, be a difficult problem to decide which illustration was the most worthy of honest endorsement.
All the pictures were not only eminently satisfactory, but it was also evident that they had in Mr. Hadley the guiding spirit of master hand."

Keep Thinking About It.

Cough Syrups that are constipating leave the stomach and bowels in a dangerous condition. A cough syrup that is a laxative is sure to give better results. Lix-all is a laxative, and if it fails to cure your cough or cold we will pay back your money.

Stomach Paralysis

Dyspepsia or Indigestion, properly named, is Paralysis of the Stomach.

When you have water-brash, feel sick at the stomach, have gas or wind on it, or feel as though you had a ball or heavy weight in the pit of the stomach after eating, and the nerves and muscles of that organ cease to act and digest your food, that stoppage in the process of digestion, to call it properly, is Paralysis of the Stomach, and should be treated as such. It is perfect folly to assist the stomach with dyspepsia remedies and stimulants to dissolve the undigested food. You may get relief, but at the next meal you suffer again. The proper treatment is to build up the worn out muscles and nerves of the stomach so that it can do its own work without assistance, and not only digest the food you eat to-day but tomorrow and forever after: as is done, by the use of Dr. Chase's Blood and Nerve Food and Liver Food, which have an immediate action on the nerves and muscles, that control digestion. The price of the Blood and Nerve Food, 50 cents; the Liver Food 25 cents. Book free.

Sold and guaranteed by E. A. Drown.

Whether or not the world would be vastly benefited by a total and final banishment from it of all intoxicating drinks, seems to me not now an open question. Three-fourths of mankind confess the affirmative with their tan-gues; and I believe all the rest acknowledge it in their hearts. And when the victory shall be complete—when there shall be nothing a slave nor a drunkard on the earth—how proud the title of that land which may truly claim to be the birthplace of both those revolutions that shall have ended in that vicinity.
How nobly distinguished that people who shall have planted and nurtured to maturity, both the political and moral freedom of their species.

PRESS SUPT.

Just Wants to Know.

We would like to attend a reception at the White House, for just one reason, not to boast of it afterwards, but to find out if the guests put their wraps on the bed. For the same reason we would accept an invitation to a party given by the Astors or Vanderbilts. The society columns in the big New York papers are shockingly familiar with all that the very wealthy and aristocratic do, even telling of the quality of the hose they wear, but it has never been reported if guests at a big reception file upstairs and put their wraps on the bed, just as they would do at your house or at a party next door.—Acheson
